

IPRO Announces Leadership and Innovation Award Winners

Six awards given out at IPRO Innovations 2009 Conference

Phoenix, AZ: IPRO Tech., a leader in the design of scalable, easy to manage litigation support software as well as e-Discovery software, honored six companies at its two-day 8th Annual Partner Conference, IPRO Innovations 2009, including four Innovation and Leadership Awards and additional special awards recognizing two "Hall of Fame" companies. The conference, held at the Pointe Hilton Squaw Peak in Phoenix, Arizona featured more than 20 specialized workshops and seminars to provide more than 200 attendees with important hands-on knowledge and comfort in the quickly evolving world of litigation support software.

As in years past, the criteria for selection includes consistent dedication to technological innovations and leading edge business paradigms to streamline business practices, achieving top quality service levels, and positively impacting the litigation community in their market over the last year.

According to Jim King, CEO of IPRO, the annual conference offers participants a chance to learn from each other, and provides a terrific opportunity to recognize the leaders in the industry. "We are fortunate to work with so many creative and brilliant business men and women, entrepreneurs and pioneers who have used technology in new and important ways," he said. "The award winners are among the best in the country in utilizing the IPRO software – but there are scores of other companies that are right up there with them!"

The 2009 IPRO Leadership and Innovation Award winners honored at the conference were:

- Document Solutions, Inc. : Small Market Leadership and Innovation
- The Common Source : Medium Market Leadership and Innovation
- Document Technologies, Inc.: Large Market Leadership and Innovation
- Deloitte Australia : International Market Leadership and Innovation

Document Solutions, Inc. has been providing litigation support services to the legal community since 1999. With more than 50 years of combined industry experience, the company's team of litigation support professionals focuses significantly on litigation support services. DSI was founded with an intimate knowledge of the legal community's need for perfect quality under rigid time constraints. Its staff of highly trained specialists helps harness today's current technology to gain a competitive advantage - while saving time and money

The Common Source, LP is a litigation support and document management service provider specializing in secure on-line repository, document scanning, coding, electronic data discovery, computer forensics, blowbacks, coding, trial consulting, court reporting, videography, and software sales and training. The company manages and maintains a computerized repository of documents consisting of a database and images to be utilized by parties with a common interest in document review and retrieval. This type of structure is particularly beneficial to companies involved in acquisitions and divestitures or sales and mergers, document review and evaluation during the bidding and due diligence processes of a sale.

Document Technologies, Inc. is the largest independent provider of litigation support and eDiscovery services in the industry. DTI is committed to helping customers lower discovery and production-related costs, reduce risk and improve discovery and document management practice. Digital solutions allow customers to access critical information quickly and to make better strategic decisions earlier in the process. DTI brings together dedicated relationship managers, top-notch consultants and strategists, world-class project management, national-scale resources, flexibility, local production capabilities and great pricing to create a value proposition unlike any other in the industry.

Deloitte Australia is a member of Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, one of the world's leading professional services organizations. Globally, it is part of a $27.4 billion global network of associated firms operating in nearly 140 countries, with 165,000 people. In Australia, Deloitte has 12 offices, 400 partners and over 4,500 people who provide audit, tax, consulting, and financial advisory services to public and private clients across the country. Known as an employer of choice for our innovative human resources programs, the company is committed to helping clients and people excel. Deloitte's professionals are dedicated to strengthening corporate responsibility, building public trust, and making a positive impact in their communities.

I PRO also added two more companies to its growing "Hall of Fame" award category, which recognizes long-term I PRO clients that have continually maintained innovative and leadership positions within the litigation support community.

The two 2009 I PRO Hall of Fame inductees were:

Shearman & Sterling : Shearman & Sterling has been advising many of the world's leading corporations and financial institutions, governments and governmental organizations for more than 135 years. The company is committed to providing legal advice that is insightful and valuable to their clients resulting in groundbreaking transactions in all major regions of the world.

TERIS : TERIS is a full-service litigation support solution provider. The company works with leading law firms and corporate legal departments to provide sophisticated consultation-based solutions, state-of-the-art technologies and highly experienced project management. TERIS simplifies enterprise-wide information flow, allowing for professionally enhanced case management, which provides clients with improved workflow.

"I PRO celebrates its award winners this year, and congratulates all of them for bringing leadership and innovation to litigation support, data processing and e-Discovery to its clients," added King. "We are proud that all our loyal customers have chosen I PRO as a partner."
